DEFINITIONS

Candidate: refers to the person(s) taking the exam. Eligibility is described for each examination on the AO Spine website.

AO Spine: AO Foundation, AO Spine, headquartered at Clavadelerstrasse 8, Davos, Switzerland.

Exam: refers to the exercise designed to test knowledge required to earn the AO Spine Diploma

Fee: refers only to the rates (considered by an administrative fee and examination fee) including the registration for the AO Spine Diploma Exam. The exam fee does not cover any travel and accommodation costs or any other expenses to the Part I and Part II exam location. The fee covers the Part I exam and Part II exam. If you fail the written exam (Part I), no refund will be provided.

Retake refers to the opportunity to take the exam again as per respective conditions according to the AO Spine website.

Registration and preparation for the exam

AO Foundation, AO Spine offers the AO Spine Global Diploma Exam to certify knowledge in spine surgery.

The exam is based on the AO Spine Curriculum. The examiners are experts in their respective fields of spine surgery.

The exam is not a compulsory or regulatory certificate of competence or excellence. It does not certify technical skills or ability to perform surgical procedures.

The format of the exam depends on the exam type.

Part I exam:

The part I exam contains multiple-choice questions to be answered in a given period of time in a proctored environment through globally located test centers.

Part II exam:

The part II exam takes place online, unless prohibited by local law or other circumstances, in which case it will be conducted in one of the worldwide Pearson VUE test centers.

The exam schedule for the part I and part II exams is provided during the registration process. The AO Foundation and AO Spine reserves the right to modify the schedule as necessary. Therefore, it is highly recommended that candidates plan their travel accordingly (evening or next day). In no event will AO Foundation, AO Spine pay for any travel fees due to changes in the exam schedule.

Registration

For details about the registration process and conditions, please check the AO Spine Global Diploma Exam website at <https://aospine.aofoundation.org/en/education/global-diploma-exam>

How to prepare for the examination

The exam is based on the AO Spine Curriculum, therefore AO Spine suggests candidates review the curriculum content and prepare to answer questions based on the learning outcomes for each pathology. In no event will AO Foundation, AO Spine be liable for the conduct of any examiner, or if any candidate fails to pass the exam. AO Spine will not refund any fees or payments made, and will in no case be liable for candidates' expenses.

For information on the AO Spine Diploma Exam, and if you have any questions, please contact globalspinediploma@aospine.org.

On the day of the part I exam

Participants are required to sign in at least 30 minutes before the start of the exam and be prepared to present two forms of identification (ID):

- A valid photo ID card
- An ID card displaying the Candidate's signature.

At the end of the written exam, the candidate must hand in all exam materials and sign out. Failing to do so will constitute a breach of confidentiality and will result in the candidate's exam participation being voided; AO Spine will not refund any fees or payments made and will in no case be liable for the candidate's expenses. Results will not be processed or communicated.

What is needed for the part II exam

The part II exam is conducted online through a web-based system running from Macintosh and Windows devices.

No software installation is needed, but we highly recommend to follow the pretest instructions provided by our partner, Pearson VUE. The instructions will be provided with the exam registration through Pearson VUE staff or can be found on the following website: <https://home.pearsonvue.com/Test-takers/OnVUE-online-proctoring.aspx>.

AO Foundation, AO Spine under no circumstances will provide a refund if the candidate fails to set up and test the technical requirements in time.

During the exams

Bringing food, beverages and/or materials to the part I and part II exam tables is strictly forbidden. Depending on venues and facilities available, AO Foundation, AO Spine may provide water. Candidates will be allowed to take restroom breaks under a proctor's supervision. All materials necessary for taking the exam will be provided on the day. Any candidate who breaches this rule will be expelled from the exam room without any right to a refund of fees or payments made and AO Spine denies any liability for expenses of the candidate.

Documents (notes, results of the exam, etc) that are created by the examiners during the oral exam, are owned by AO Foundation, AO Spine and therefore must be handed in to the project manager or AO Spine partner's staff on-site. These documents will be stored or destroyed within the AO securely.

Exam results

Results of the part I exam will be sent by e-mail within two weeks of taking the exam. Candidates who do not pass the part I exam can retake the exam at the next possible opportunity for the full registration process and the referring exam fee.

Exam results for the Part II exam will be communicated by e-mail within two weeks after the exam has been taken. Candidates who do not successfully complete the part II exam may retake it at the next opportunity by paying a reduced examination fee and without having to retake the part I MCQ exam.

For detailed information about retaking the exam, please check the relevant section on the AO Spine website: <https://aospine.aofoundation.org/en/education/global-diploma-exam>.

Disclaimer of liability

Technical issues

In the event that a technical issue disrupts the exam, AO Spine will allocate each impacted candidate(s) an appropriate additional delay to resume the exam. Only AO Spine is entitled to decide the length of the appropriate delay.

Other issues

AO Foundation, AO Spine endeavors to offer candidates the proper examination conditions. AO Foundation, AO Spine makes no guarantees and will not be liable for any disruptive sounds or other disturbances during exam administration, nor will AO Foundation, AO Spine offer reimbursement or opportunities to retake the exam in the event of such disruptions. If necessary, the exam centers provide noise cancelling ear plugs to all candidates.

Please keep in mind that during the exam, AO Foundation, AO Spine will not be liable for any theft or damage to candidates' personal property, regardless of the cause other than fault or deliberate recklessness on the part of the AO Foundation, AO Spine.

Appeal

No postexamination appeal process is available. This is expressly agreed upon by candidates upon acceptance of these terms and conditions.

In no event will AO Spine be held liable for the results of the exam. Each candidate shall be exclusively liable for his/her exam results.

The fee

An administration fee of CHF 100 is required to verify eligibility. This must be paid during the application process, and by the end of the process at the very latest. The registration fee is required upon registration for the part I exam through AO Spine and must be received by AO Spine within 14 days after confirmation of eligibility at latest. Payment of fees must be made in Swiss francs (CHF). Payment by credit card is recommended in order to avoid delays in registration and to guarantee availability.

Cancellation policy

To cancel an exam registration, the candidate must submit a written request through the contact form on the AO Spine website at: <https://aospine.aofoundation.org/en/education/global-diploma-exam> or by sending an e-mail to globalspinediploma@aospine.org.

Cancellation by phone or any other form of communication will not be considered.

A maximum 85 percent refund is possible in the event of any of the following circumstances:

- Medical (hospital admission or serious injury)
- Loss or bereavement (death of parents, guardian, sibling, or child)
- Hardship/trauma (victim of crime, traffic accident, etc)

Proof of circumstances is required and must be provided in writing to:

globalspinediploma@aospine.org.

By providing proof of the above-mentioned circumstances, a diploma exam registration fee refund of up to 85 percent will be granted (valid for 2021 and subsequent years).

The refund will be processed after the exam, or if reasonably possible, prior to the exam date.

No refund(s) will be processed if the exam is canceled due to circumstances beyond the control of the AO Foundation and/or AO Spine.

Moreover, in no event will AO Foundation, AO Spine be liable for costs (eg, visa application costs, accommodation and travel arrangements, travel expenses) incurred due to cancellation of the exam. All exam candidates are urged to apply for visas early, and to purchase personal travel insurance.

Candidates must ensure they are on time and in the right place for their part I and part II exams.

Misconduct

by registering, candidates agree to respect the following instructions for the exam site:

- Smoking is not permitted in the exam room and its surroundings. Any fines for violation of this ban shall be borne by the responsible candidate. Candidates will comply with safety and security measures put in place for the exam.
- Candidates agree not to cause any nuisance or inconvenience during the exam.
- Proctors are present during the exam to avoid any risk of cheating and to prevent any misconduct. Please be aware cheating and misconduct are forbidden and candidates failing to respect these conditions will be automatically disqualified from the exam and will receive no certificate.
